

Gill Blumovitz

Strengths Experienced IT manager with proven record of success in managing highly complex technological and organizational IT projects. Rich experience in strategic planning and supervising outsourcing companies and vendors; superb interpersonal skills and ability to drive employees and vendors to excel. Thoroughness in problem solving while working in a multi-lingual, multi-cultural environment. Professional decision making capabilities aided by profound technological and usability understanding and knowledge. Excellent team work.

Experience 2004 - OrionAlpha LTD (with Bank Leumi group)
Founder, CEO and manager of global IT Projects

- Providing IT integration services including project management to Bank Leumi group overseas units.
- Managing projects such as International WAN; Remote access (SSL-VPN); DRP and BCP; Internet infrastructure , and more
- Achieving all projects' goals and deliverables on time and on budget
- Consulting to technology purchase departments, RFP writing and management including technological, business, budget, organizational and legal aspects

2001 - 2004 Bank Leumi group (Consultant)

International Project Manager

- Managed global networking and data-security projects for Bank Leumi overseas-units: secure internet infrastructure; internet banking applications infrastructure; and enterprise management tools.
- Lead a team of fifteen professionals from Leumi's IT departments, including budget responsibility.
- Single point of contact for the bank's units and headquarters. Business-technology integration, RFI and RFP writing, managed all bidding processes, including vendor selection, and technological negotiations.
- Managed all vendors, lab-testing, design and implementation processes in Israel and USA. Marketing the projects to Bank Leumi Israel and its overseas units' management.
- Implemented and operated enterprise management and performance tools. Trained local staff on internet infrastructure, security and enterprise management products.

2001 Comverse-Fundtech

System Architect

- System architecture in Financial Cellutions – a Comverse-Fundtech startup for developing financial applications for mobile phones.
- Analyzed existing applications; system architecture, security, infrastructure. Designed and built the user interface.
- Work plan responsibility; managed developers and vendors.

1998-2001 Bank Leumi le-Israel (consultant)

Web Site Manager

- Developed Bank Leumi web site, managing a team of eleven programmers, support engineers and content masters.
- Planned and implemented the integration process of business, marketing and technology. Built development methodology, work procedures, and was responsible for strategic consulting for the bank and its affiliates.
- Initiated and managed web development projects with responsibility for the functional design of various applications. Marketing the bank's web site inside the organization.
- Performed analysis of internal customer requirements. Initiated, Implemented and operated customer quality research.

1997-1998 Pegman Israel

IT engineer

- Designed, implemented and managed the data network and the IT support.
- Migration to Windows environment, team manager of digital photography

1996-1997 Self Employed

Marketing Research Management

Education

1997-2001 Tel Aviv University

Masters of Business Administration (MBA) – Information Systems
Graduated 85.

1993-1996 Tel Aviv University

Bachelor of Art (BA) – Business Administration and Psychology
Graduated 92.

Military Service

Officer, special intelligence unit

Languages

English, Hebrew